Auction of jewellery belonging to Cotton Growers of Andhra Pradesh

*113. DR. YELAMANCHILI SIVAJI: Will the Minister of FIANACE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that nationalised banks are auctioning jewellery in Guntur and Prakasam districts of Andhra Pradesh which has been hypothecated by cotton growers; and

(b) if so, what is the number of such auctions that took place this years?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (DR. ABRAR AHMED): (a) and (b) The banks exhaust all avenues of recovery to safeguard their interests and enforce the securities available with them for this purpose within the period of law of limitation. Securities pledged with the banks, including jewellery, against the loans availed by the borrowers can be disposed off to realise the due in the manner stipulated in the loan agreements. The recovery of dues from the borrower is a normal banking activity and Government or Reserve Bank of India do not issue any instructions in this regard. The information with regard to the auctions of the pledged securities including jewellery made by the banks for recovery of their dues is not generated by the data reporting system. Similarly, the diltrict-wise data is not generated about the overdues for each category of loanees like those of cotton growers. However, the amount of overdues in the agriculture sector in the Districts of Guntur and Prakasam of Andhra Pradesh as at the end of June, 1989 and June, 1990 was as under:—

(Rs. in lakhs)

Name of Districts	Amount of overdues
	June 1989	June 1990
Guntur . . .	6226	5893
Prakasam . .	460	2740
